2. Reading. Ex. 6 (p 66-68)

6 Have a quick look at the argument in the following dialogue and say what it is about. Choose a), b) or c).

a) a TV guide

b) a reality show

c) a film

Hana: Have you seen the TV guide anywhere? I can't find it. I'm the only one in class who hasn't seen the new reality show yet.

Grandma: No, I haven't. But we've already argued about these shows. They're just a poor substitute for real life. What you hear there is just a small talk, shallow chit-chat and gossip. No criteria. No clue what clever people have said or written about. Come on, Hana, start reading, talk to real people. Get a life of your own.

Hana: How unfair! You're such a typical teacher. These shows aren't school. They're real life. Hallo? You always talk about books and people from the past. Who cares?

Grandma: That's exactly what I am talking about. Who cares...!? How immature! You have picked up that attitude from such cheap reality shows and soaps.

Hana: No, I've picked it up from my gang. From real life. And the shows aren't cheap.

Grandma: What they offer is trash. Most of these young people have poor education, no higher goals in life and are desperate to do anything stupid or provocative just to be in front of the cameras.

Hana: What do you mean poor education? As far as I know all of them finished some secondary school or even university.
